The New Council .- A call has been issued for the meeting of the new City Council Monday night for the purpose of organization. In the notice of yesterday of the offi-cers to be elected that of superintendent of Maury Cemetery was omitted. There is no opposition announced to the present efficient incumbent, Mr. Sidney M. Perdue.

Installation Postponed.-The installation of officers of Manchester Royal Arch Chapter, which was to have taken place Thursday night, was postponed until last night. The names of the officers-elect were some time since published in the Dispatch.

The Concert of Company A, Richmond Fire Department, on account of the rain last night, is postponed until to-night.

The Pic-Nic Season .- A number of our belles and beaux enjoyed themselves yesterday at a pic-nic at Mason's farm, near the city. Many of the Lyceum Assembly were present. Excellent refreshments were provided, and a full string-band was in attendance. All present speak in high terms of the kindness received from Mr. and Mrs.

The Chain-Gang .- Officer Smith yesterday had the chain-gang at work on the Pegrades and sections, which indicates that tersburg turnpike making needed improvements.

> The License Law .- The present license or wagons, drays, and other vehicles, expires June 30th, and must be renewed at once. The Marshall Mills .- A portion of these
